O Lord, the psalmist says, “Not to us, O LORD, but to your name give glory.” You deserve our glory, honor, and praise, and yet we are prone to claim it for ourselves. We love to be lifted up, honored, and praised by others. We tend toward pride and a failure to recognize that all we have—resources, talents, gifts—comes from you.

○ God, may we never see ourselves or others as worthy of the worship and praise that you are due. Forgive us for when we lose sight of your glory and worship the creature rather than the Creator. Turn our eyes back to you and renew our strength. Show us your glory, ○ LORD. Amen.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead.

Westkirk
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Amen.
