Greeting and Announcements

GOD CALLS US TO WORSHIP

*Advent Call to Worship - Psalm 33:1-9; 18-22

Shout for joy in the LORD, O you righteous! Praise befits the upright. Give thanks to the LORD with the lyre; make melody to him with the harp of ten strings! Sing to him a new song; play skillfully on the strings, with loud shouts. For the word of the LORD is upright, and his work is done in faithfulness. He loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of the steadfast love of the LORD. By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, and by the breath of his mouth all their host. He gathers the waters of the sea as a heap; he puts the deeps in storehouses. Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him! For he spoke, and it came to be; he commanded and it stood firm...Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love, that he may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine. Our soul waits for the LORD; he is our help and our shield. For our heart is glad in him, because we trust in his holy name. Let your steadfast love, O LORD, be upon us, even as we hope in you.

Prayer of Confession: Father, in this season of Advent we are filled with hope and reminded of the true object of our hope. Yet, we find that often our hopes are disordered or misplaced. We find hope in people and things that will fail us. We turn your good gifts into objects of worship, rather than allowing them to direct our gaze to you, the giver of every good and perfect gift. We hope for better days and yet we set our sights far too low. Father, forgive us for losing sight of Christ and the hope that we have in him. Renew in us this day, hearts that long for his return and raise our hopes to rest on him and him alone. Amen.
