Things to pray about:

This is our last Sunday in the book of Acts! At the end of Acts 28, Paul meets with the local Jewish leaders for an entire day, preaching and teaching and sharing with them about Jesus. At the end of that day, some of them believed in Jesus, but some didn't, and so they disagreed. Paul reminded them of Isaiah's prophecy that some people would understand, and some wouldn't, and then the Jewish leaders left. God provided the money for Paul to stay in Rome, and he spent two more years there telling others about Jesus.
