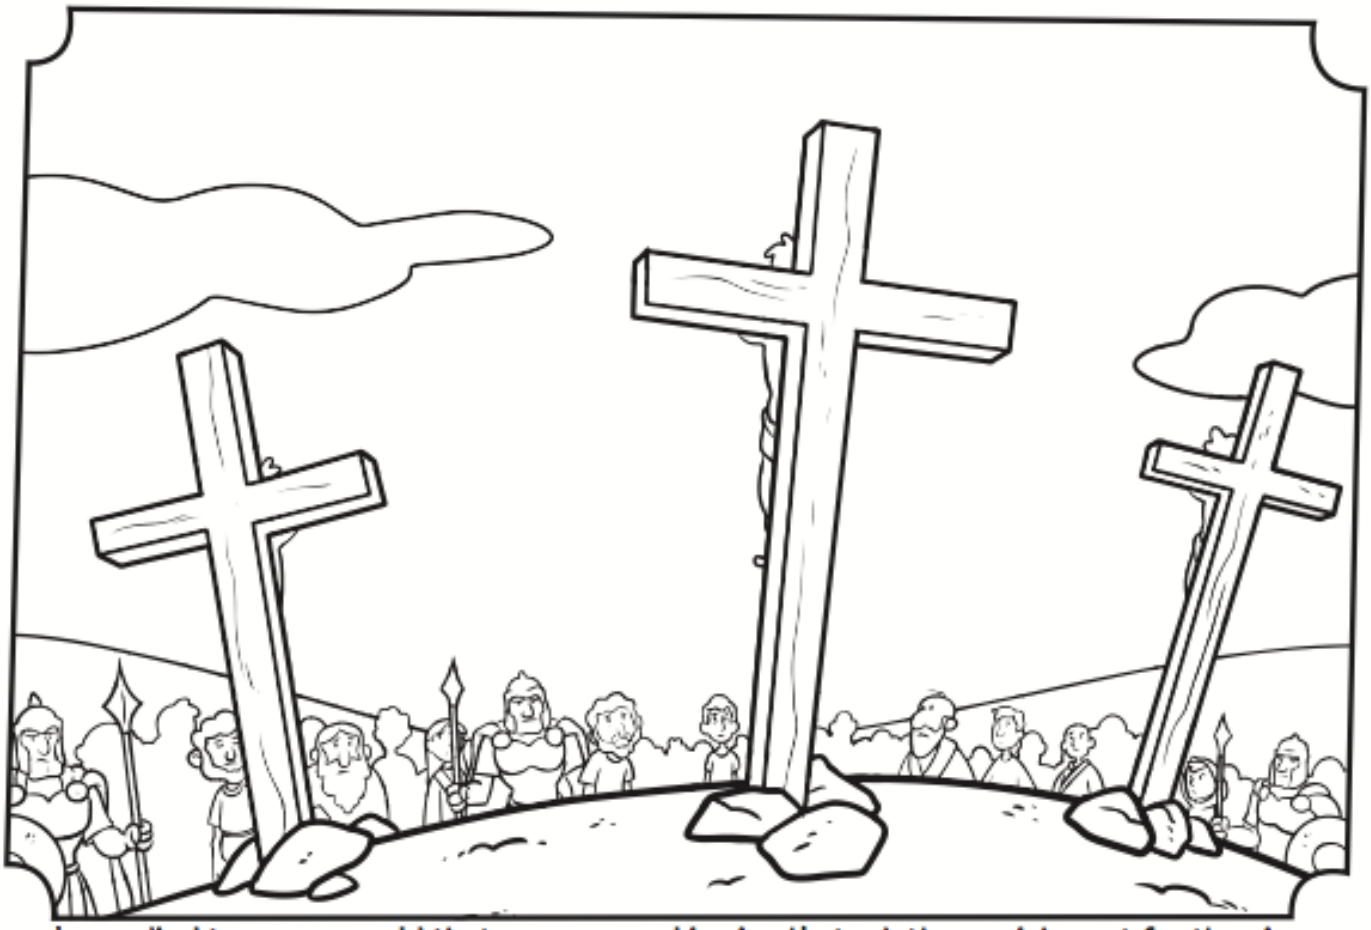
We don't usually have church on Friday night, do we? But this is Holy Week, the week that leads up to Easter, and Resurrection Sunday! On Sunday we'll be celebrating Jesus conquering death and sin, but tonight we remember the awful death He died for us. His death was awful, and painful, but what he experienced after that—being in hell and apart from God—was far, far worse, especially since he had never sinned and didn't deserve it! He did that for US—because He loves us and wants us to spend eternity with him. Hallelujah!

We call today Good Friday. It didn't seem good that day, but it turned out to be good. REALLY Good. ☺



Jesus died to save a world that was covered in sin - He took the punishment for the sin of the world, so that we could all be a part of the Kingdom of God. Mark 15:33-39
