Our Weekly Concerns

Pastor of the Week

Wayne Larson, Redeemer Presbyterian Church, Des Moines

Missionary of the Week

P&M, team.org

New Concerns:

- Paul Olson recently moved to Bickford House. Pray for this time of transition for him and his wife, Sue.
- Phil Monroe has been diagnosed with pancreatic cancer.
- Pray that God would raise up a team to travel to Hungary this summer.

Continue to pray for:

- Brent Howland (with International Messengers) is now home and recuperating from a viral infection.
- Peace in Ukraine; for the preservation of life and perseverance for the believers.
- Those who are grieving a recent loss: Roma Bassett, the Pohlmann family.
- Jane Brown, mother of Paul Brown, is now home and living with her daughter.

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.”

Phil. 4:6

WESTMINSTER SHORTER CATECHISM

Question of the Week (answer on back)

Q: What was the sin whereby our first parents fell from the estate wherein they were created?

New Sunday School Classes starting today!

Esther - Andrew Schoonhoven and Mark Bakker - Great Hall

God is never mentioned in the book of Esther, yet it is in our Bibles. How are we to understand the message of this book and its place in God's Word? Join us as we study this book and discover God's providence and his faithfulness to his covenant people.

Worship - Nathan Hiatt and Ron Kepford - Calvin Room

What is worship? What happens when we worship? Why do we do what we do in worship? We will seek to establish the biblical foundations for our worship and show why we do what we do in our worship here at Westkirk.

Bagpipers

March 22 12:30pm

Bagpipers will meet on March 22 at the Urban Grill, 3651 86th St. at 12:30pm. All single members from Westkirk are welcome! If you plan to attend, please call or text Audrene Hansen at (515) 778-8866 by noon.

Secret Church

April 29 6-12pm

The Evangelism Commission is happy to announce that we will be hosting Secret Church 2022 lead by David Platt, Friday, April 29th. This year's topic is "Who Am I" -closely examining what the Bible says about tough topics today: sexuality and gender, race, abortion, justice, genomics, infertility, artificial intelligence, and the metaverse.

Light refreshments will be provided, but you are also welcome to bring your own!

If you prefer, you may participate via livestream. A link will be emailed to you prior to the event. Books cost $10 and may be picked up at in the church office.

Please bring payment (exact cash or check) on the night of the event, or mail to: Westkirk Presbyterian Church Attn: Secret Church

Staying Up-to-Date with our Missionaries

As we receive newsletters, pictures, and other materials from our missionaries, we will update folders that have been created for each missionary. This URL will link you to the folders-

Newest updates:

- Phil & Renée Remmers - Robert Morrison Project
- Rocky Vest - BTC200 Hope for Justice - report on the Celebration of Hope gala.
- Gary & Kate DeGraaf - GEM in Lille, France
- Freedom for Youth - March newsletter

A word of caution: Some of our missionaries are in dangerous areas. Updates for these missionaries may be found by clicking on the Westkirk Shepherd link on our website and entering the password. Please limit your use of this information to uphold these brothers and sisters in prayer! Printing and/or sharing some of the newsletters may put our missionaries in danger.

House and Grounds Update

In order to streamline the process of addressing concerns related to the church and grounds, please use this email. Thanks for your patience as we transition into this new role!
