Things to Pray About

Acts 18-19

Last week we met a married couple called Aquila and Priscilla who were tent makers in Corinth. They met Paul, became followers of Jesus and then travelled with Paul telling everyone about Jesus! In today's scripture we meet Apollos. He knew lots about God. He was so excited that he taught lots of people everything he knew. Even though Apollos was a good teacher, he only knew part of the story of Jesus so he couldn't teach them everything. One day Apollos was preaching about Jesus in the Jewish synagogue. Priscilla and Aquila were there, and they listened to him. When he had finished speaking, they realized he only knew part of the story. What did they do? They talked to him quietly, and offered to teach him the rest of the story. Priscilla and Aquila invite Apollos to their house where they taught him the rest of the story. Just like Paul taught them, now they teach Apollos, and
